

Jewel City's Calendar Brightened By Parties Welcoming Newcomers

Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Bettingen To Entertain

By JULIA T. M'GARVEY

In these grateful quieter spaces between seasons, entertaining for the welcome new arrival, resident or visitor, always brightens the social calendar, and most especially in the Jewel city where her name is legion.

Mrs. George B. Harrison and Mrs. Charles A. Bettingen have issued invitations to tea, Thursday, at Mrs. Harrison's home, honoring Mrs. Clark Goodell Mitchell, Denver, who has bought a home in La Jolla, and her son's wife, Mrs. Quentin Mitchell, who with Mr. Mitchell also plans to reside in La Jolla.

Those pouring will be Meses. Samuel Roberts, Elmer J. Neville, F. W. A. Vesper, Wade Langston, Morrison Hopkins, John Considine, William H. Mitchell, E. F. F. Copp, Harold Raddatz, Nancy Pitts, Susan McGee Richards, Harry Castles, Grace Messer and Miss Katherine J. Smith.

Floral decorations will feature white gladioli and white chrysanthemums. About 50 guests have been invited.

INTIMATE PARTIES

Several charmingly intimate little affairs are being given for Mrs. William Rockefeller, New York, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. Ball, and her sister, Mrs. Ball Walker. Mrs. Charles E. Stearns entertained at dinner in the visitor's honor recently at Rancho Santa Fe. Other guests were Col. and Mrs. William H. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Considine, Mrs. Morrison Hopkins, Mrs. Ball and Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Morrison Hopkins gave a small picnic for Mrs. Rockefeller, Thursday, in the back country. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Rollins will compliment Mrs. Rockefeller at a small barbecue dinner tomorrow on the terrace.

Mrs. Ray C. Lounsbury is planning a series of small luncheons as a more satisfactory way than a housewarming of inviting friends to see her beautiful new home. She will entertain Wednesday with an intimate luncheon complimenting Mrs. Geoffrey Byrne, the former Mrs. Mary Macklin Stephens. Mr. and Mrs. Byrne are just back from their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, and are busy with the interior arrangements of their charming new home on Beaumont ave.

AFTER 5 O'CLOCK

Mrs. Margaret Miller will entertain today during the early evening hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Shepherd were hosts yesterday at an early evening affair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Saunderson gave a housewarming party last night in their new home on Olivetas st.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kellogg entertained at dinner in the marine room at the beach club for their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bailey, Pasadena.

PATIO LUNCHEON

Miss Emma Mellou Campbell, former resident of Pittsburgh, entertained at luncheon Tuesday in the garden patio of La Valencia hotel, introducing Miss Teresa Wildman, Philadelphia, who will be a winter resident in La Jolla, and welcoming home Mrs. George Murdock and Miss Alice Veach, from a summer at Chautauqua lake. The hostess was assisted by Miss Mary Houston, Mrs. Howard Randolph, Mrs. Gethin D. Williams and Mrs. Edwin Laing.

Guests were Meses. William M. Thompson, Truman B. Gorton, Louise B. Hastings, Robert Halley, Jean S. Parmelee, Page, Mabel Pollard, John MacIntosh, Louise L. Schwamm, William Jeandron, and dinner for 12 last night in the ma-

Mrs. William Black, popular Kansas City summer visitor who plans to return soon to her eastern home. (Joan Ray photo.)

ANNUAL PICNIC
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keith are entertaining the usual large group of friends today at picnic luncheon at their Pine Hills lodge.

Mrs. Charles E. Stearns entertained at luncheon Tuesday. Covers were laid for 14.

The sewing group will meet Thursday with Mrs. Marvin Clark at Campo.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Jackson entertained their poker club Friday at barbecue dinner in the patio.

Bill Jackson and Bill Eggers are down from Webb school for the week-end with their families.

Mrs. Bennett Olson was hostess at a dessert bridge Friday.

BACK FROM TRIP EAST
Miss Katharine J. Smith is back from a month's trip to the east coast where she visited with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Appleyard at their country place in Connecticut, and in Minneapolis with Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Terse, another nephew and niece. Miss Smith spent some time in Portland, N. H., with relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Montgomery Brackett of La Jolla. She visited Boston and New York City, saw three east coast navy yards as closely as now permitted, and enjoyed many motor sight-seeing trips.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold U. Sverdrup and Dr. and Mrs. Guy Fleming have returned from a fascinating trip into Arizona and Utah.

SOCIAL CLUB FORMED
About 35 wives of the physicians and engineers at Pt. Loma Naval laboratory organized a social club Thursday at a polluck al fresco luncheon at the home of Mrs. Russell Raitt of Princess st. Mrs. Raymond Peterson acting as co-hostess. Mrs. Edwin M. McMillan was elected to head the group. Mrs. E. A. Whitehead, Gilbert dr., San Diego, will be next month's hostess.

AT THE BEACH CLUB
Mr. and Mrs. J. Brooke Buckley will give a farewell luncheon today for Mrs. Howard George, Boston, who has had a house in La Jolla for four months, and is returning home in November. The group will number 10.

Mrs. Dorothy B. Andrews gave a Schwamm, William Jeandron, and dinner for 12 last night in the mathe Meses Elizabeth Loomis, Martha rine room. Recent dinner hosts in

Musical Arts Society Forms Committee

The Women's auxiliary of La Jolla Musical Arts society was formed Thursday at a meeting of local music lovers gathered in Mrs. Eaton M. MacKay's home to hear Dr. Nikolai Sokoloff, conductor, explain his ambitious plans, high hopes and fine ideals for the new La Jolla Musical arts center.

With full appreciation of the vital need for inspiration in these dark days, the group responded joyously to plans for next summer's five concerts at the beginning of the movement to center musical interests in the Jewel city.

Mrs. Herbert S. Darlington, president, represented the officers of the society. Mrs. Eaton M. MacKay was chosen chairman of the arrangements committee, supported by Mrs. J. T. Donnelly, Mrs. William LeRoy Garth, Mrs. W. C. Crandall and Mrs. Morrison Hopkins as vice chairmen. Others on the committee are Meses. C. Lewis Allen, Walter Ames, Fayette Bousfield, L. B. Dixon, E. F. F. Copp, Gordon Gray, William S. Kellogg, Samuel H. Roberts, Roger Revelle, Robert K. Sampson, Alvin V. Skiles, Nikolai Sokoloff, Harold Sverdrup, and J. Wolff, and Miss Leila Klauer, Miss Katharine J. Smith and Miss Glendora Rollins.

The membership drive will begin at once. Applications may be made to any of the committee.

ST. JAMES AUXILIARY

Women's auxiliary of St. James-by-the-Sea will discuss the Melvern manifesto led by Mrs. Guy Western at its meeting Thursday at 10:45 a.m. The group is beginning the study of the Malvern conference held in England last spring for the purpose of "relating our church to a Christian world order" at the close of this war. Mrs. Richard Day's group will talk on "Fellowship," as part of their topic "Vitalizing our Parish to Action."

Newlyweds Arrange Trip To Catalina

Miss Alice Marie Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. F. Howard, said "I do" to Jackson Taylor Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Lewis, at wedding rites in Fairmount Baptist church, Friday evening. The Rev. A. V. Marsh read the service. Mrs. Gladys Schenck, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Bettie Hendon singing "Calm As the Night," "I Love You Truly," "Andante Cantabile" and "At Dawning."

The altar was banked with palms and baskets of white gladioli and larkspur.

FATHER GIVES BRIDE

Mr. Howard gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore white satin princess style, with square neckline clipped with rosettes of bouvardia. Her fingertip veil was held with a halo of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of bouvardia with white orchid center.

Miss Katherine O'Neill, as maid of honor, was frocked in powder blue marquisette and taffeta, fashioned with long bodice and full skirt. She carried talsiman roses. Mrs. Daniel Waters, matron of honor, wore a similar gown in aqua shade and carried yellow roses. Miss Betty Butoner, bridesmaid, also was frocked in marquisette and taffeta in pale pink. Her flowers were deep pink roses.

Ernest Moore was best man, and Austin Potter and Daniel Waters ushered.

LARGE RECEPTION

Two hundred guests were invited to the reception which followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Howard was lovely in a lace-trimmed gown of soldier blue, and Mrs. Lewis greeted guests in a wine velvet redingote dress. Assisting in serving were Mrs. James Lyle, Mrs. Harold Rand and Mrs. Gordon Vaughn.

The newlyweds left on a two-week trip to Catalina and San Francisco. For traveling the bride wore an R.A.F. blue suit with white orchid corsage.

Local Leaders Attending Girl Scout Sessions

"Girl Scouts prepared to serve" is the theme of the 26th national convention of that organization which opens today at Hotel Baker, Dallas, Tex., and extends through Friday. Mrs. John Sheafe Douglas, Girl Scout commissioner of San Diego, left late last week to attend this convention; which is held every two years. She also is a member of the regional committee and chairman of the regional camping committee. Mrs. Alice Shallenberger, local director, who is attending a pre-convention conference for professionals, will join Mrs. Douglas at the convention and return home with her.

Mrs. Harvey S. Mudd, national president, stresses the convention theme as expressing the Scouts' efforts to fulfill their part in insuring democracy's future in the United States. The program, she says, is designed to give the spirit and guidance necessary to continue Girl Scouting as a vital force in strengthening and preserving the nation.

There will be round table discussions on every phase of the Scout program, and group meetings when national headquarters speakers will be heard. Examples of the Brownie, intermediate and senior Scout work will be on exhibit and each age level will have its special programs and demonstrations.

Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Shallenberger will report at the next meeting of the leaders' association.

Alumnae Will Gather

Alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta will meet for dessert at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in the home of Mrs. Don Yale, 5301 Marlborough ave. Miss Mary Barkley is taking reservations.

Mrs. Jackson Taylor Lewis took her marriage vows Friday evening at Fairmount Baptist church. She was Miss Alice Marie Howard. (Boeber studio.)

Fashion Predictions

Pumps decorated with a twisted milk fall in place of a bow, matching your mink coat, cape or hat, for afternoon. . . . Velvet suits, the jacket giving the effect of a dip-back peplum, for holiday parties and for formal afternoons all winter.

Mrs. Felton Senator

Georgia was the first state to send a woman senator to congress. Rebecca Latimer Felton was appointed by Gov. Thomas W. Hardwick as a Democrat to the United States senate, Oct. 3, 1922, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sen. Thomas E. Watson.
