

Gay Parties Compliment Brides-to-Be

Miss Alice Marie Howard has set Oct. 17 as the date for her wedding to Jackson T. Lewis. Miss Howard has chosen as her attendants, Mrs. Daniel Waters, matron of honor; Miss Katherine O'Neill, maid of honor, and Miss Betty Buttner, bridesmaid. Best man will be Ernest Moore and Austin Potter and Daniel Waters will usher.

MISS HARDIE FETED

Miss Mary-Em Hardie who will become the bride of Lt. Robert Curtis Howard, Oct. 12, shared honors at a luncheon given by Miss Margaret Redelings yesterday in Casa del Rey Moro cafe, with Miss Elizabeth Donnelly, Oklahoma City, who has come to be maid of honor at the wedding. Miss Hardie and Miss Donnelly are cousins. Luncheon guests included Mrs. Ralph C. Hardie, Mrs. L. H. Redelings, Mrs. R. F. Bartel, Mrs. Norman Dennstedt, Misses Elizabeth Redelings, Grace Reddelings, Margaret Culbertson, Gloria Winke, Violet McCabe.

Miss Hardie will entertain with a spinster's dinner in her home next Saturday evening preceding rehearsal at Blessed Sacrament church. Her guests will include Misses Violet McCabe, Gloria Winke, Margaret Redelings, Elizabeth Donnelly, Peggy Clark, of Palm Springs, and Mrs. Norman Dennstedt, James Hall, John Kemper Parsons.

Miss Clark, a classmate of Miss Hardie at University of California at Los Angeles, is to play the wedding music on the organ.

At the bachelor dinner over which Lt. Howard will preside the same evening, guests will be: John Hardie, Robert Wade, Norman Dennstedt, and John Kemper Parsons. Leon Miller, James Hall and Clifford Walkley, all of Los Angeles. Mr. Parsons, a U.C.L.A. classmate of the betrothed pair, who introduced them, is to sing.

KITCHEN GADGET SHOWER

Miss Anne Pritchett, fiancée of William Sayre Reetz, will be honored at an evening party given by Mrs. William H. Gronow in her home on Menlo ave., Oct. 16. Guests who will bring kitchen gadget gifts for the bride-to-be are: Miss Jean Barnes, Betty Scott, Belle Barancan, Misses William Wallace, Harold Charman, J. Max Miller, John De Wolfe, Harry Sidney, Mary Ingram, Lester Earnest.

FOR MISS CHANTER

A surprise crystal shower honoring Miss Leah Chantler, fiancée of Lt. Frank Preston, was given by friends Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Boldrick.

A game of wedding bells was played and clever verses directed the hunt for the gift boxes.

Pastel colored egg-shell flowers reflected in a large table mirror fashioned a garden centerpiece for the buffet.

Miss Chantler was honored with the presence of her mother, Mrs. Frederick C. Chantler, and Mrs. Earl E. Preston, mother of her fiancé.

Other guests were: Misses Harold Nasti, Paul D. McCarthy of Hollywood, J. F. Roberts, Richard Osgood, Ernest Boldrick, Rose M. King, Cora B. Johnson, Ruth Hubbard, Edith Drummond, Orpha Harbaugh, Ethel W. Oberg, Gertrude Ellis, Josephine Harrington, Blanche Harkwell and Peggy Paige.

Misses Augusta Wicarius, Leona Badgley, Winifred McCarthy, Clara Schmucker, Viola Fuerth, Eleanor Baepfer, Harriet Erb, Mary Eleanor Meredith and Bernice Bonsignor.

HOUSE-HOWARD BETROTHAL

Members of the Gamma Delta Sigma sorority were surprised with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Teresa Howard to Stephen Bernard Houser at a party in the home of Mrs. Charles E. Hunt.

The announcement was made with cleverly printed match folders in white and gold. The color scheme was carried out in tallies and floral decorations.

Guests enjoying the evening were: Mrs. Frank Awe, Mrs. Robert Neyenesch and Miss Ellen R. Breen. Members attending were: Misses Harold Aihart, Glenn Ballard, Fred Blacksmith, Howard Craighed, Robert Brown, Hal Brucker, Donald Hansen, Stuart Keyes, John Neyenesch, Robert Reid, Harry Selhorst, Roland Thomas, Henry Wuest, Richard Barthelmiss, George Crawford and Thomas Oakley.

SORORITY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Irma Jean Jones who will become the bride of Harry Davis Oct. 11, was honored at a surprise bridal shower given by Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority at the home of Mrs. Harvey H. Smith.

Ring of alarm clocks at intervals during the evening disclosed the hiding place of each gift and added much merriment to the occasion.

Clever new games were planned by Mrs. Harvey Smith assisted by Miss Marion Paddock and Mrs. Harriette Turknette. Dainty refreshments were served. Table decorations were carried out in the bridal motif.

Members attending were: Misses David J. Ames, Alvin L. Bennett, William V. Dorr, Barney Firks, Theodore R. Foster, Irma Jean Jones, Graham Roland, Ronald Roland, Leroy E. Richardson, William Schmitz Jr., Edward A. Smith, Harvey H. Smith, Harriette Turknette, Misses Ann Belford, Lenora Anderson, Helen Bailey, Marion Paddock, Maude Sykes.

Mrs. LeRoy S. Huldren was Miss Gertrude Maxine Reetz before wedding rites in the Little Chapel of Roses, last evening. (Bouxiart.)

Roses Chapel Pretty Setting For Wedding

Miss Gertrude Maxine Reetz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reetz, exchanged wedding vows with LeRoy S. Huldren, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Huldren, last evening in the Little Chapel of Roses, Chula Vista, with the Rev. Shirley R. Shaw officiating. Montreville Thill sang the wedding song.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned in train and lace and tulle veil. She carried a garland bouquet of white gladioli and bouvardia.

Miss Geraldine Corey, as maid of honor, wore pink marquisette and her bouquet was of pink blossoms. Miss Lola Seibert, wearing aqua-colored chenille organza, and Miss Ruth Montgomery in yellow organza, served as bridesmaids. They carried bouquets in harmonizing colors.

Reginald Ferguson was best man and Mark Jackson and Earl Severin ushers.

At the reception in the Reetz home, 3569 Park Villa rd., the rooms were decorated with white asters, gladioli and roses. The wedding cake centered the bride's table. Mrs. Reetz received in a gown of rose colored alpaca and Mrs. Huldren chose Nile green silk jersey.

After a wedding trip north, the young pair will reside here where Mr. Huldren is with a utilities company. He attended San Diego State college where he affiliated with Kappa Phi Sigma fraternity.

Chi Omegas Set Dinner Meeting

Mrs. Edwin Guthrie and Mrs. Earl C. Rice will be hostesses to Chi Omega, national academic sorority at the first fall meeting of the group Tuesday, at 7 p.m. in Vincent's dining room. Dinner will be followed by a short business meeting and bridge.

Among newcomers to be welcomed are Mrs. Lyle Tripp and Mrs. Joseph Mabey from Utah Agricultural college, whose husbands are officers at Camp Callan; Mrs. Kenneth Turner, University of Oregon; and Mrs. D. H. Waldron, University of Colorado. (Mr. Turner and Mr. Waldron are at Consolidated); Miss Helen Daly and Miss Lenore Daly, University of Nebraska and Miss Beatrice Warren, all of whom have joined the teaching staff in the city schools.

Mrs. C. J. Thorsen of Los Angeles will join the group at its following meeting. Mr. Thorsen was recently made vice president and trust officer of the San Diego Trust and Savings bank.

Mrs. Glenn A. Rick returned to San Diego from Los Angeles with Mr. Rick when he resumed his position here as city planning engineer.

THURSDAY CLUB PROUD OF HELP TO CRIPPLED AS BENEFIT NEARS

Bronzy autumn leaves and brilliant hued flowers will give accent to decorations in Hospitality House when Thursday club presents its annual bridge party and fashion show, Thursday in the auditorium of that Balboa park women's building. Luncheonette will be served at 1 p.m., followed by bridge and climaxed with fashion parade as the grand finale of a beautifully planned afternoon.

Stencilled score pads, tallies and table covers emphasizing the autumn leaf motif, are being arranged by Mrs. Alden Pulkerson, and prizes, handled by Mrs. D. D. Williams, are wrapped in blending tones. Guests are reminded to bring their own cards.

Mrs. Howard Herr, program committee chairman in charge of models, promises an interesting arrangement for presentation of the show.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Entire proceeds from the party will go to the Crippled Children's society, to swell the fund maintained there by Thursday club. According to recent publicity, Warren E. Griffith, executive secretary of the California Society for Crippled Children, made the statement that the San Diego society has done the outstanding job in the state. The

New Nostradamus To Be Heard

David Sturgis, astrologer, who has been called the "Nostradamus of modern times," will speak for American College club at its after-luncheon meeting Friday in the Don room of El Cortez. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 with the speaker following a brief business meeting at 2 p.m. New members will be particularly honored at the luncheon.

Mrs. Charles Small, Mrs. Clarence Harden, Mrs. Charles Wulff and Mrs. Paul A. Lewis will be hostesses for the day.

Sturgis was called by Congressman William I. Sivovich "the world's greatest astrologer," saying "he has helped guide nations, conferences, leaders, towards betterment of humanity."

He has done the horoscopes of an imposing array of the world's most famous folk including that of President Roosevelt, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, John L. Lewis, J. Edgar Hoover, Lily Pons, the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia, Archduke Franz Joseph and his archduchess, Sen. Huey Long and Charlie Chaplin, and is credited with predicting many of the highlights of history. The Chicago Tribune stated that Sturgis "predicts the inevitable end of the nationalistic reigns, including the failures of Hitler, Mussolini and Hirohito and predicted to the day the date and exact outcome of the Lausanne conference, and the time America would go off the gold standard."

Mrs. Irma S. Doughty, president San Diego Teachers' association, will head the receiving line at the annual fall tea to be given Wednesday in Hospitality House.

War Relief Party Planned Thursday

The monthly luncheon and card party for British War Relief sponsored by Mrs. Catherine Stott will be held Thursday in the clubhouse at 3843 Herbert st. Luncheon at 12:30 will be followed by contract bridge and Chinese checkers. Prizes will be awarded.

Assisting will be Misses D. B. Suggs, P. Bartlett, James Eton, A. Clarit, S. Perkins, C. H. Bartlett, S. M. Hill, Roy Taylor. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. C. H. Bartlett.

Among those planning to attend are: Misses J. Wilkinson, Bruce Stewart, J. B. Wells, S. L. McKellar, W. B. King, W. F. Baker, J. Niven, D. Jackson, O. McCann, J. E. Wilson, J. Moon, E. Goldworthy, E. Grady, O. Knight, W. Easterbrook, H. W. Dubber, J. Murphy, N. Grant, and M. McLennan.

Women Repair Cars

Thirty-five women trained to repair automobiles and drive in a blackout were graduated recently from the Red Cross-American Automobile association motor patrol course in Washington, D. C.

Teachers Group To Receive At Fall Tea

San Diego Teachers' association will hold its annual fall tea in the auditorium of Hospitality House Wednesday. The function will honor or Jacob Weinberger, retired president of the board of education; Fred E. Lindley, new board member; teachers new to San Diego and four exchange teachers, Miss Irene Alexander, Tacoma, Wash.; David Brockway, New Rochelle, N. Y.; Miss Rita Hand Hogan, Mt. Clair, N. J., and Miss Josephine Shea, Providence, R. I.

Receiving from 3:15 to 4:15 p. m. will be Mrs. Irma S. Doughty, president of the association, Miss Jane Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Weinberger, Mrs. Rita Hand Hogan, Dr. and Mrs. Will C. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Jones.

FAST PRESIDENTS PRESIDE

Past presidents will preside at the tea tables. These are: Misses Eleanor F. Edmiston, Ida May Burkett, Ruth Weiss, Louise Hill, Miss Beth Johnson and Miss Emma Spear.

The State college string quartet will play throughout the afternoon and a business meeting will follow the tea when the new teachers will be presented and greetings extended by Mrs. Doughty, Dr. Crawford, Mr. Weinberger and Mr. Lindley.

A life membership in the association will be presented William P. Dunaway who retires from San Diego High faculty this year, has been active as a C. T. A. representative and founded the city Teacher's Credit Union.

EXCHANGE EXPERIENCES

Miss Lois Perkins, member of San Diego High faculty, will tell experiences as an exchange teacher last year in Springfield, Mass.

A brief resume of a new national education association commission for the Defense of Democracy Through Education will be given by Mrs. Edmiston.

In charge of the tea are: Misses Jane Grant, Elizabeth Jenkins, Helen Clark, Peggy Stewart, Betty Carrington, Mrs. Clara Allen, Messrs. Sheridan Gorton, Sol Schultz and Richard Ault.

South America Talk Arranged

South America, the theme of this year's study for San Diego Woman's club, will be stressed in the talk to be given before the club at the general meeting Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the clubhouse by Charles C. Otis.

Mr. Otis, who spent observant years in countries below the canal, and who is an interesting and forceful speaker, will tell of his experiences. Spanish dances by two young performers, Bernice Palmer and Ruy Fitzell, will add atmosphere. Miss Gertrude Sperry, Mrs. Robin Adair, Mrs. Walter Bellon and Mrs. W. O. Anderson will be hostesses. Travel section of the club is presenting the program under supervision of its chairman, Mrs. Charles C. Wulff.

SECTIONS TO MEET

Travel section will have its own meeting Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in the clubrooms when Mrs. Carl Switzers will speak on British Guiana. Mrs. Y. Laws on Dutch Guiana and Mrs. Edward Krull on French Guiana.

Since practice is being intensified for the Christmas program, Mrs. H. E. Cooper, chorus chairman, announces that rehearsals hereafter will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesdays instead of 10:30. There still is opportunity for more members, according to Mrs. Amoretta Ball, director. Mrs. Frank McMahon is accompanist.

GARDEN-PAINTING

Garden section will have a luncheonette bridge Thursday, Oct. 16, according to the chairman, Mrs. Hugh Milligan, who asks for early reservations. Mrs. Milligan and Mrs. Heppie, social chairman, are taking them.

Fine arts department will paint as usual under Mrs. Isobel Schneider Friday in the south room of the clubhouse meeting at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. H. L. Goley is chairman.

Cosmos Crafts Club Sets Work Meeting

Cosmos Crafts club will meet Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. in Plymouth hall, at University and Pershing aves., with Mrs. Mildred A. Greer, president, presiding. Instruction in leather work will be given by Mrs. H. E. Richards. Style-crafting, plaque painting and flocking will be taught by Mrs. Mary Dillin.

Hard of Hearing Group Plans Meeting

San Diego Society for the Hard of Hearing will meet at the clubhouse, 3843 Herbert st., at 7 p.m. tomorrow. Dr. DuPuy will give an illustrated talk on first aid. A business session will follow.

The Rings She'll Wear Upon Her Finger... Should Be As Beautiful As Your Love

THEY NEED NOT BE COSTLY—but they certainly should embody all the exquisiteness—the loveliness your bride-to-be has always dreamed of. The diamonds should be perfect—flashing sparks of blue fire—the setting should be fashionably modern to set off the diamonds and her sweet hand. Illustrated are two betrothal sets which your bride would be happy to own. The convenience of budget payments is offered.

Make hers a perfect diamond... she deserves no less.

WITH its roots deep in the history of America... with its traditions always those of the finest sterling craftsmanship... Kirk Silver has won ever-increasing fame and world-wide recognition, in 125 years of devotion to an ideal. The phrase "America's Oldest Silver-smiths" is one of true significance when applied to the House of Kirk... for Kirk alone can trace uninterrupted family ownership back to the year of 1815, when this institution was founded in Baltimore by Samuel Kirk.

To you who are now considering the purchase of sterling silver, the present is of equal importance with the past... and so we invite your most critical comparison of Kirk Sterling Silver. For we know that you will find to your delight, that Kirk Silver represents outstanding value as well as substantial weight and superb artistry. Thanks to the Kirk heritage of skill and experience, we are able to offer sterling silver of superlative quality... at prices which are surprisingly low.

Sought by museums and collectors—selected by distinguished American families for four, five, and six generations—Kirk Silver can well be your choice for a lifetime of rich satisfaction, for a glorious heirloom of the future.

Place service in "Repousse," by Kirk... $12.74

The convenience of deferred payments is offered.

BUY FURS NOW—SAVE

You always save at Noonan... you save More Now! Prices are rising! Importing stopped! Don't wait and be sorry! Buy now!

NOONAN Furs
1303 5th - Cor. 5th & A
In San Diego Since 1922

J. Jessop & Sons
1041-FIFTH AVE. FRANKLIN 4144

J. Jessop & Sons
1041-FIFTH AVE. FRANKLIN 4144