Ed. has held this position for the past two years, and his nomination is sufficient evidence of the satisfaction he has given in the performance of his duties.

Charlie Talmadge, accompanied by his wife and children, left the first of the week for a month's visit with Mrs. Talmadge's parents, Capt. and Mrs. A. W. Robinson, at Leavenworth, Kan., where Mr. Robinson holds a position in the U. S. military prison. Paul King occupies Mr. Talmadge's position with the Rock Island during his absence.

Teachers and others that are thinking of buying a Watch should call at Harley L. Pierce's and get the benefit of the special 30 day sale.

We would respectfully call the attention of our readers to the change in Dr. W. T. Doherty's advertisement this week, in which he offers a reduction for 30 days on paints, oils and wall paper. This is the season of the year to shape around and improve preparatory for winter, and you should take advantage of this cut. He means business, as his stock in these lines is greater than he cares to carry over.

Poultry Wanted!
Springs have declined and are worth same price as hens. Present cash price 4 cents, trade price 4 1/2 cents. If you wish to sell at above prices we want your poultry. Remember if there is an advance you get it. Also, we are selling fruit jars and cans at a very low price. Call and get what you need before they are all gone. McPHERSON.

Our old friend Hank Spooner, one of the earliest settlers of Elk Creek tp., but now of Axtell, Kan., came up last week to attend the old settlers' reunion. He was the same joyful, good-natured Hank as of old, and those who knew him in earlier days as well as the many new acquaintances he has made during his more recent visits, were all pleased to see him and enjoy a few hours with one of the very best men on earth.

Hot Baths at Elliott's Barber Shop only 15 cents.
Harley Baldwin's delivery horse took a sprint from the northwest corner of the square west on main street Tuesday that made things lively for a few minutes, but was shortly afterwards captured with little other damage than the promiscuous distribution of a quantity of groceries that happened to be in the wagon. A dog in the wagon at the time the horse started held fast to his position to the end.

You can learn to ride a wheel in three lessons, but you can learn where to buy the best goods in all lines by going once to W. W. EVANS'.

We were in error last week when we mentioned that the Misses Inez and Jennie Dawson gave a social dancing party to their young friends. The party was given by Mr. Claud Car, manager of the R. I. lunch counter, and the only way we can account for the item getting mixed is that the party was given at the late residence of B. J. Dawson, who kindly let the young folks use a couple of the larger rooms from which the carpets had been removed.

It isn't economy to try to get along without things you really need, but it is economy to get the things you need at W. W. EVANS' Everything as low as the lowest.

Married, at the office of and by Judge Jacobs, in Belleville, on Wednesday, Aug. 28th, Mr. E. L. Johnson and Miss Ella Noble, both of Union tp. The groom is one of Republic county's best teachers, and the coming year will teach the Pleasant Grove school in his township, and the bride is one of Union township's brightest and most accomplished young ladies. THE TELESCOPE joins their hosts of friends in wishing them a pleasant and prosperous journey through life.
